

OUTREACH AND TRAINING FOR BIPOC BEGINNING FARMERS IN NEW ENGLAND

Chief George Spring Buffalo
Pocasset Pokanoket Land Trust
NIFA Award: 2022-70033-38182

Project Organization

"In order to grow, we must take a strong and firm hand in our own governing; and that we must as a Tribal Entity speak directly to the Government be they City, State, Federal, and the United Nations. We will not leave our concerns in the hands of any go between no matter how well meaning." -Chief Sequan Pijaki, (Chief George Spring Buffalo)

Overall Goals

1. Understand the needs of BIPOC Beginning Farmers in the region
2. Expand and improve the resources available to helping BIPOC beginning farmers and ranchers better use financial management tools and programs to advance their agricultural endeavors.
3. Create curriculum and tools for BIPOC beginning farmers in business planning, financial literacy, and natural resource conservation.
4. Deliver comprehensive and well-organized trainings to the farmers.

Indigenous Leadership

Business Planning Intensives

Soil Health Workshops

Financial Literacy Courses

Project Partners

